Annual Support

Government, Foundation and Corporate Contributors

The mission at Minnesota Public Radio cannot be realized without the tremendous support extended to us by these contributors. In fiscal year 2006 (July 1, 2005 through June 30, 2006). Local regional and national corporations, foundations and government agencies made philanthropic grants to support the annual programs and services that fulfill our mission. Within each category, contributors are listed in descending order of their financial support. Underwriting support from local, regional and national corporations is listed separately on this page. We sincerely appreciate the partnership and financial commitment of the following organizations.
